Last updated: June 13, 2021

WynnSights ("us", "we", or "our") operates <https://www.wynnsights.com> (the "Site"). This page informs you of our policies regarding the collection, use and disclosure of Personal Information we receive from users of the Site.

We use your personal information only for providing and improving the Site. By using the Site, you agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this policy.

Who is WynnSights?

WynnSights is a blogsite that offers free tips and insights for Millennials and Generation Zers about how to plan, invest and save. While not an investor by profession, blogger Hugh F. Wynn, a "Baby Boomer," has educated himself about sound personal financial habits and put into practice those techniques since he was a young man. The personal financial habits he has curated over the years have allowed him to retire early and to continue to earn a living while pursuing his interests.

The WynnSights blog posts focus on educating investors about the importance of an early and routine savings habit, a common sense buy-and-hold strategy, a diversified investment portfolio, the wisdom of shunning market timing, a "sticking to your guns" attitude regardless of negative outside influences, and the prudent practice of keeping your investment strategy simple and your investment costs as low as possible. Wynn doesn't profess to be the last word on savings and investment, but he does have an opinion on the subject at hand because it works for him. In short, he believes that investing should be simple, but only if certain rock-solid principles are observed.
